HANBRIDGE STILL VICTOR.

SHOWS HE CAN SPRINT FAST AS WELL AS STAY BY DEFEATING PLEASE.

Alma Dufour Wins at Once After a Long Retirement-T. M. Green Outspeeds Crystal Maid -Grande Dame Again.

Cincinnati. O., November 2.—George H. Holle's much-improved Hanbridge again demonstrated that he is probably the best racer here by carrying 122 pounds to an easy victory in the six-furlougs handican, in which some of the best sprinters at the course started. Despite his recent good performances Hanbridge was held in less esteem than Berwick. Honest and Please, the erratic Honest ruling favorite. In the running Please went into a good lead with Hanbridge her nearest follower. Honest and Berwick collided at the start, which gave them a little the worst of it, but both gained rapidly when approaching the stretch turn, where there was a general closing up. When straightened out for the stretch racing Hanbridge dashed into a long lead and won in a common canter. Please held on well under a hard drive and outstayed Berwick.

E. Corrigan's Alma Dufour, making her first start since last March, when she raced at City Park was the medium of confident support to win the fifth race, and justified it by taking the purse easily, but only after she bad given her backers some anxiet during the first three-quarters by her failure to land a portion of the purse.

T. M. Green showed a return to his best form by winning the second race impressively from a fair aportion of the purse.

T. M. Green showed a return to his best form by winning the second race impressively from a fair end of the purse of the purse of the strength of the purse of the first street of the fast-coming Alice. The race demonstrated that Marse Abe's recent filness has affected his staying powers, for after going three demonstrated that Marse Abe's recent filness has affected his staying powers, for after going three furlongs at a fast clip he tired badly and was unplaced.

T. C. McDowell's The Peer furnished the surprise in the opener by scoring an unexpected victory over Be Brief and Killington.

Grande Dame repeated her recent good showing and had little trouble in getting home in front of Mirth in the third race. The latter, considering that she was stiff

GOOD RACING IN JAMAICA'S LAST DAYS.

Far West Defeats Monfort in the Main Race-Mr. Crickmore Critically Sick.

New York, November 2.—Some really good finishes me out of the program at Jamaica this afternoon.

New York, November 2.—Some really good finishes came out of the program at Jamaica this afternoon, but race patrons generally were much more interested in the election tomorrow than they were in the racing. Several who had been racing at Pimlico were on hand in order that they might vote tomorrow, and horsenne generally are desperately in carnest in their intention to try to elect Chauler.

The handicap of the afternoon resulted in a victory for M. L. Schwartz's Far West. Only recently he was beaten by both Monfort and Tileing, and today with weights more in his favor, he turned the tables on Monfort. To win he had to be much the best for he met with a great deal of interference all through the running and on the far turn was all but knocked down. In the stretch he caught Monfort and after a short duel came away to win with something to spare. When Notier went to a drive on Monfort the Ornament cott sulked, but at the time he was beaten and his running generously could hardly have affected the result.

May River, which only recently escaped from the maiden class, ran an excellent race when he easily disposed of a smart lot of two-year-old selling platers, and Hoffman, a widely fouted maiden two-year-old, beat Chaffinch, the choice, in the race for maidens of the same age. Hallfax, a couple of seasons back a wonderfully good sprinter and a brother to Handzarra, outfooted the sprinters in a six-furloug selling race, but tired and only lasted long enough to win by a half-length from Black Mary. In this race Burgher was the one looked upon as a real good thing, but Notter was unable to keep him up in the early running and third was the best he could do. St. Joseph and Battleaxe, the other winners, only had very bad ones opposing them.

H. G. Crickmore, the old clerk of the scales and publisher some years ago of Krik's Guide to the Turf, is seriously ill in a sanitarium in New York and it is not expected that he will recover. He has been in bad health for some time, but a recent report on his condition was decidedly

SMALL BLUE GRASS HAPPENINGS.

Lexington. Ky., November 2.—Auctioneer William Easton is still confined to his bed in the Phoenix Hotel, but expects to be able to travel tomorrow to French Lick Springs, Indiana, where he will remain until November 21, when he is to return to Lexington to conduct the ninth annual Kentucky sale of thoroughbreds for the Fasig-Tipton Company.

R. A. and W. S. Beasley, who purchased McGrathiana Farm several weeks ago, arrived from Lancaster today and are making arrangements to take possession. A deed for 244 acres sold by Colonel Young to Messrs. W. H. Harp and J. D. Milburn for $18, 247.50 was executed today. This land is on Georgetown Road and adjacent to the farm sold to Messrs. It develops today that the stallion Monsieur de Young before his dispersal sale were bompht on an order of Algernon Daingerfield, assistant secretary of the Jockey Club, the stallion being for Mr. Daingerfield and the mares for Mr. Malone.

PIMLICO RACING PROSPEROUSLY SUPPORTED.

My Grace a Surprise in the Chief Race of the Day -Noted Sire Islington Dies.

Baltimore, Md., November 2.—De Mund, Paul J. Rainey's high-class sprinter, by winning his second race of the meeting at Pimlico this afternoon showed that he is back in his best form and, beyond question, the speedlest racer at the track. De Mund ran the six furlongs in close to record time and won in a canter. The first quarter was covered in 22½ seconds and the half in 46½.

the six furlongs in close to record time and won in a canter. The first quarter was covered in 22½ seconds and the half in 46½.

Weather conditions and the track were more favorable for good racing than at any time in a week and there was a big increase in the attendance. The racing was excellent and, while public choices were not as successful as the backers desired, the finishes were exciting and for the most part the horses ran to form.

were exciting and for the most part the horses ran to form.

On the program the feature was the Greater Baltimore Steeplechase and it resulted in a big surprise. My Grace, Courtland H. Smith's hunter, which was a sharp contender all the way, came away from old Grandpa in the last half mile and won in a drive. The victory of My Grace, on which Jay O'Brien had the mount the last time the horse was started, disqualifies him for hunt races hereafter, as under the rules a borse that wins an open steeplechase is ineligible for hunt races thereafter. Bilberry, favorite in the race, was running well in the lead and apparently had the race won when he ran out at the next to the last jump, the same place he refused at in his previous start.

Starter Dade suspended jockeys E. Kraus and T. Fuerst for the remainder of the meeting because they were unruly at the post in the last race. Sampson, the steeplechase rider, was set down for three days.

J. I. Hyland will arrive at Pimlice tomorrow. Mr.

were unruly at the post in the inst race. Samison the steeplechase rider, was set down for three days.

J. J. Hyland will arrive at Pimlico tomorrow. Mr. Hyland has Tony Bonero and Footpad in training for Charles Fleischmann of Cincinnati, and it is probable that Footpad will be added to the Walden Stakes tomorrow. More than a third of a century ago Mr. Hyland was a regular at the Pimlico meetings and rode may races through the field. Later he trained for Johnson Brown, grandfather of George Brown, Jr. who owns a number of borses.

James McLaughlin's two-year-olds, Waponoca and Arondack, will reach the track tomorrow and Waponoca will be a starter in the Walden.

There will be a pink coat hunters' steeplechase on Friday as an additional attraction. The conditions are for four-year-olds and over, the horses to be property of members of a recognized hunt club in Maryland. Virginia or the District of Columbia. The riders will wear the regulation hunt costume.

The horses Horace E., Nick Stoner, John Marrs and three "bers, will be shipped to Cuba by D. Kelly. W. Conroy will go to Cuba as trainer for Mr. Kelly.

The Cavanagh special train, which left Baltimore this evening at 6:30, carried nearly 400 voters to New York, all of whom will cast their ballots against Hughes. The general opinion and hope of horsemen at Pimlico is that Chanler will be elected governor.

There is a scarcity of good riders at Pimlico and horsemen at Pimlico is that Chanler will be elected governor.

There is a scarcity of good riders at Pimlico and this afternoon Ed Peters, trainer for the Raineys, was obliged to scratch Nethermost because he could not find a suitable boy to ride the colt.

Alex Grant, winner of the second race, was sold in the paddock at Pimlico on Saturday for $250. His new owner more than won him out.

Mr. H. T. Oxnard reports the loss of his valuable stallion, Islington, at his Blue Ridge Stock Farm, Fauquier County, Virginia. Islington sired, among others, Kinley Mack, the only horse that ever won the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps in the same year.

MILLSTREAM STUD SALE IN FRANCE.

Baron Ochtritz was the purchaser of Adam at the Millstream Stud in Paris, October 20. The purchase was in behalf of the Hungarian state breeding establishment. The sale was well attended by the leading turfmen of France and the bidding was lively. Musette, a fast mare when on the turf. brought the best price of any of the broodmares. Fred Burlew giving $5,000 for her. He also bought the Bridgewater mare, Content. W. K. Vanderbilt bought Candle and Gloriosa and Edmond Blanc added Grace Gumbert to the big stud presided over by Flying Fox. Eugene Leigh got the St. George mare, Disadvantage, for $320 and probably secured a great bargain. If she foals a colt by Adam it is safe to say it would sell readily for ten times the price he paid for its dam. Next to Musette, Waterboy's dam, Zealandia, brought the most money, going to Charles

BREEDING BUREAU STALLIONS POPULAR.

At the coming National Horse Show in Madison Square Garden, New York, the Breeding Bureau of the Jockey Club will be an important exhibitor in at least one class, that for the best thoroughbred stallion. The breeding bureau has made five entries, namely, Watercolor, blk. h. 10. by Watercress—Sabrina; Rensselaer, ch. h. 14, by Hayden Edwards—The Belle: Shot Gun, b. h. 8. by Artillery—Princess Noretti: Advance Guard, ch. h. by Great Tom—Nellie Van, and Accountant, br. h, 5, by Filigrane—Reckon. Watercolor is a rich black of magnificent size and carriage, and has already won blue ribbons at state fairs, where he has been exhibited since becoming the property of the breeding bureau. Shot Gun is a striking bay borse that only a few years back carried the colors of W. B. Jennings so successfully. Rensselaer is the oldest stallion in the lot, being fourteen years old, but a fine-looking animal of rich chestnut color. Advance Guard is another chestnut of rugged appearance and has made a good record in the stud. Accountant, the youngest in the lot, is a handsome horse that is well known to race-goers of the present day. He was not only the leading three-year-old of 1906, but in point of earnings the best horse of the year, winning the sum of $83,570.

The show quality of the stallions that have been located throughout the state is only a small part of the leading three-year-old of 1906, but in point of earnings the best horse of the year, winning the sum of $83,570.

The show quality of the stallions that have been located throughout the state is only a small part of the benefit that has already been derived by the farmers by the establishment of the Breeding Bureau, Already, although it has only been in existence a short time, the farmers have had remarkable results from the infusion of thoroughbred blood in their stock, and it is a benefit that will naturally grow each year.

An idea of the increased value of young horses as a result of the thoroughbred blood is had in an extract from a letter recently writen by H. W. Terpenny, who has Saladin, a bureau horse, at Bridgeport, N. Y. He reported that he showed two colts by Saladin at his fair and one took the blue ribbon, while the other was awarded the red. After the show he was offered $200 for the blue ribbon winner, which was only a five-months-old colt. Saladin has served fifty mares this season for the farmers in his district.

Oakwood, which is in charge of Frank I. Holmes, of Mayfield, has served seventy mares this season, and reports have been made of twenty-nine foals of his get from the 1907 service.

Accountant, which was not put in the bureau until June, has served twenty-three mares. He is in charge of George F. Munson at Hempstead. Rensselaer has served twenty-three mares and On Deck is credited with forty-three this season. On Deck has also made a show record, taking two blue ribbons the only time shown. Shot Gun, which is in the care of W. A. Wadsworth, of Livingston County, is a comparatively recent arrival, but twenty-three mares have been to his court. Advance Guard has had fifty-five and Mortallo twenty-three.

Other reports are being made daily and it is evident that farmers all through the state are availing themselves of the opportunity to have the use of a thoroughbred sire practically free of charge.

AN AUSTRALIAN SPORTSMAN'S DEATH

The death is announced of Mr. James J. Macken, an Australian breeder and owner of race horses, which occurred in Sydney. He had been under treatment in a private hospital for an internal complaint, and never entirely rallied from an operation. Mr. Macken was a native of Ireland and arrived in Sydney about twenty-five years ago. Imbued with the sporting instincts of his native land, Mr. Macken soon became identified with horse racing, and was a member of the Australian Jockey Club, Tattersall's Club and the New South Wales Breeders', Gwners' and Trainers' Association, being vice-president of the last-named body. He owned a number of race horses, including Australian Colors, Tartan, Luciana, Clonsilla, Ban Ceontha, Achillean and Fightaway. Australian Colors carried Mr. Macken's popular livery to victory in Australia and England, but undoubtedly the best horse he owned was Tartan, which credited his owner with the Australian Cup of 1906, the C. B. Fisher Plate, Loch Plate, Champion Stakes, Cumberland Stakes and the A. J. C. Plate, Mr. Macken's career on the turf was that of a clean, honorable sportsman. The death is announced of Mr. James J. Macken,

The Pasadena Stable's chief dependence at the summer rest Old Timer has developed into a fine looking horse and promises to show up well during the approaching season.

the approaching season.

Jockey Borel, who had a bad fall at Butte, which kept him out of the saddle most of the summer, has been riding at the fair meetings in the northwest. He was especially successful during the recent meeting at Salt Lake City, where last week he performed the rare feat of winning the entire card for the day. Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, has begun to get together a racing stable with the aid of C. J. Fitzgerald. He already owns the two-year-old Silk Hose, purchased some time ago from S. C. Hildreth, and expects to have enough good horses next year to cut considerable of a figure on the Canadian tracks.

Besides the seventeen yearlings in the stable of F. A. Forsythe, which reached Oakland on October

F. A. Forsythe, which reached Oakland on October 26, there are several two-year-olds that have never faced the barrier, the most promising being Kemmure, a bay colt by Oddfellow—Kinda, Oesa, a chestnut colt by Oddfellow—Fairy Dell, and Halloween, a brown filly by G. W. Johnson—Virginia Lee.
